

McFarland

October 10, 2013 by Sharon McConnel

On the back of this photo, it reads: "Mr. & Mrs. McFarland and Badger" (unknown handwriting) and beneath that it reads: "Friends of Celestia Carlson" (Celestia is the great-grandmother of Sharon McConnel, written in her father's handwriting). It's not much to go on. I've done some census work and found it inconclusive without first names. I've posted this photo on various genealogy sites and <http://www.deeadfred.com>, but no one has come forward. It's possible that the McFarlands did not actually go to Boise to be photographed, but a traveling photographer came to them. Please contact me if you know who these people are. Thank you!
